ROCKFORD MAYOR TO WELCOME ILLINOIS REFORM COMMISSION AT TOWN HALL MEETING

CHICAGO (March 5, 2009) – The Illinois Reform Commission (IRC) will hold its third Town Hall meeting on Tuesday, March 10 at the E.J. Zeke Giorgi Building Auditorium, 200 S. Wyman Street, Rockford, IL from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

The Town Hall meeting will include a moderated discussion followed by an open question and comment period. City of Rockford Mayor Lawrence J. Morrissey will welcome the Commission and community guests alike during his opening remarks.

The IRC Commissioners scheduled to attend this meeting include:

- IRC Chairman, and Perkins Coie Partner, Patrick Collins
- Doctor Douglas L. Johnson, M.D., Ph.D, Neurosurgeon, DuPage Neurosurgery and Regimental Surgeon, United States Marine Corps., 25th Marine Regiment
- Brad McMillan, Executive Director, Institute for Principled Leadership, Bradley University, Peoria, IL
- Lawrence Oliver, Chief Counsel, Investigations, The Boeing Company and former Assistant United States Attorney

Members of the public and the media are invited to attend. “I encourage the citizens of Rockford to take advantage of this forum and to share their viewpoints on reform in Illinois government,” states Mayor Morrissey. “We’ve received thoughtful insights and ideas from our two previous Town Hall meetings. We very much look forward to hearing input from the folks in the greater Rockford area during this critical period,” said IRC Chairman Patrick Collins.
